

A Binary Search Tree is a node-based binary tree data structure which has the following properties: The left sub